

RCR
V16
1912

CONTENTS

ARTICLE

No. 1.

PAGE

I.—A Problem of American Education. By GARRETT W. THOMPSON	1
II.—What is Christian Salvation? By CHARLES E. CREITZ	29
III.—The Attitude of Present Day Scientists Towards Religion. By R. C. SCHIEDT	46
IV.—Philips Brooks. By FREDERIC GARDINER	71
V.—The Report of the Committee on Closer Union with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. By GEORGE W. RICHARDS	95
VI.—What Christ Brought to the Schoolroom. By A. THOS. G. APPLE	112
VII.—Notices of New Books	132
Blauvelt : In Cambridge Backs; Benedict : The Great Problem; Butler : Present-day Conservatism and Liberalism; Sherman : The Stunted Saplings; Swander : Autobiography; Huizinga : The Authority of Might and Right; Boodin : Truth and Reality; Hebberd : The Philosophy of the Future; Neimeyer , Stoudt , Rath , Reinhard , Kemenzer : History of the Western Salisbury Church; Blau : And Then? Ernst : Is Christianity as a Religion Surpassable? Jefferson : The Building of the Church.

No. 2.

I.—Nietzsche and the Great Problems of Modern Thought. By R. C. SCHIEDT	145
II.—The Social Mind. By H. M. J. KLEIN	177
III.—The Influence of Schleiermacher on Modern Theology. By E. E. KRESGE	202
IV.—The True Purpose of Collegiate Education. By J. F. BUCHHEIT	223
V.—The World Vision. By BERNARD C. STEINER	234
VI.—The Teachings of Jesus as an Ethical Norm for Today. By JOSEPH M. NEWGARD	246
VII.—Contemporary Sociology. By A. V. HIESTER	258
VIII.—Editorial Department.
A Change of Editors	273
IX.—Notices of New Books	276
Martin : Great Religious Teachers of the East; McGlothlin : Baptist Confessions of Faith; Cushman : A Beginner's History of Philosophy; Jordan : Commentary on the Book of Deuteronomy; Barton : Commentary on the Book of Job; The Fundamentals: A Testimony to the Truth; Goodman : The Reunion of Christendom.

ARTICLE		PAGE
No. 3.
I.—	William James. By JOHN S. STAHR	289
II.—	The Marks of the Prophet. By FLOYD W. TOMKINS	316
III.—	The Place of the Christian Minister in Organized Society. By A. O. REITER	330
IV.—	Is Walt Whitman the Best Representative of America's Independent Spirit in Poetry? By EDWARD S. BROMER	346
V.—	The Place of Paul in Early Christianity. By OSWIN S. FRANTZ	367
VI.—	The Minister and the New Theology. By PAUL B. RUPP	386
VII.—	Contemporary Sociology. By A. V. HIESTER	410
VIII.—	Editorial Department. The Supernatural and the Natural	424
IX.—	Notices of New Books	432
No. 4.
I.—	Municipal Government in Germany. By COUNT JOHANN HEINRICH VON BERNSTORFF.	433
II.—	A Recall of Benjamin Franklin. By HON. JOSEPH BUF- FINGTON	451
III.—	The Anniversary Sermon. By ELLIS N. KREMER	488
IV.—	Benjamin Franklin. By HON. GEO. F. BAER	499
V.—	The First President of Franklin College. By R. C. SCHIEDT	504
VI.—	Historical Sketch of the Beginning of Franklin College. By H. M. J. KLEIN	517
VII.—	Contemporary Religions and Theological Thought. By A. S. WEBER	538
VIII.—	Contemporary Sociology. By A. V. HIESTER	547
IX.—	Editorial Department. Our Educational Ideals	561
X.—	Notices of New Books	569
	Kinsley : Was Christ Divine? Dawson : A Race's Redemp- tion; Balch : Christianity and the Labor Movement; Root : Edward Irving—Man, Preacher, Prophet; Boydston : The Science of Human Nature; Beach : Endeavors after the Spirit of Religion; Summerbell : Mountains of the Bible; Garretson : Primitive Christianity and Early Criticism; MacNish : The Master of Evolution; Hahn : Organ and Function; Whitney : Roses from My Garden.

